

AGM Voting Results – 2017

Where should decisions be taken?

Participants were given a list of seven example scenarios and asked in what forum of decision-making such a decision should be taken, and by who: coordinator team or membership.

The seven decision scenarios were:

- To take a potentially controversial advert.
- To take funding from a potentially controversial source.
- To decide on a change to payment rates for coordinators and contributors.
- To decide themes for content.
- To decide to partner with another organisation.
- A decision on spending up to £3,000
- A decision on spending between £3,000 - £10,000

The decision making bodies proposed were:

- AGM
- monthly members' meeting
- Loomio (online discussion forum for members)
- the coordinator team
